Printed by W. Horton for the Company of Stationers, 1693.

The ALMANACK Explained.

I. Under the Festival Days you have the Changes and Quarters of the Moon; wherein, the number signifies the hour: m. Morning. a. afternoon. n. Night.

II. In the Column of the ☽ rising and setting, the minutes are in the middle, and shews how many minutes the ☽ rises after the hour before them, and how many minutes it sets before the hour following them. Example, On the 16 of March, you find 5 50 7, that is, the Sun rises 50 minutes after 5, and sets 50 min. before 7 a clock at night.

III. In the Column of the length of the days and nights against the 6th of March, you find 11 36 13, which shews the day is 11 h. 36 m. long, and the night 13 h. wanting 36 m. long.

IV. To find the hour of the night by the shadow of the Moon on a Sun-dial, add the hours and minutes of the ☽'s Soutthing to the time of the shadow on the Dial, the Sum (abating 12 h. where it may be) is the time of the night.

TO THE
Most Serene and Mighty Prince and Princess,
William the Great, and Mary the second,
King and Queen of England, &c.

Illustrious pair, whom Heaven design'd to be,
The Guardians of the British Liberty.
By whose decree, more ancient than the World,
A Royal Scepters given you to hold.
And by strong fate, before times first began,
Or Prior Ages fleeting minutes ran :
You're preordain'd to set the bounds unto
The Gallick Tyrant's rage, to make him know,
Heaven rais'd you up to scourge his Pride and Lust,
And your strong Arms to shake him into Dust.
To set th' enslav'd European Nations free,
And their Eternal Liberties decree.
The Scales into your Royal hands are put,
Determine then the afflicted Nations lot.
Go on and prosper as you have begun,
Montieur's the setting, you the rising Sun.
If such your dawn, if such your rising light ;
What's your Meridian Glory, and how bright ?
Tyrants like Earth-born Slaves shall sink for fear,
Whilst you illustrious Crowns of Glory wear.
Crowns that can't fade, that can't admit decays,
And Awful Majesty to bear the sway.
In all succeeding times your names shall live,
To Tyranies their future Periods give.
So awful, and rever'd, Eternal fate !
Tyrants shall Tremble but to hear your name.
We ( most serene ) with grateful measures sing,
The mighty Acts of such a mighty King.
Who dar'd to rescue Brittais sinking state,
Who dares the Gallick Tyrant's force and hate.
Th' admir'd Wisdom, and more generous mien,
The prudent Conduct of a Noble Queen.
For whom our humble Souls approaches make,
And on our bended knees heavens Throne invoke.
On stable Thrones be free, secure and blest,
And in a long and happy Reign find rest.
Wear Crowns as firm and durable as fate,
And reigns until the Mundane night grows late.

So prays Your Majestys most humble and faiftfull Subject and Servant,

W. SALMON

Betoneologia, Or a Compleat English Herbal in III. Books. Containing English Herbs and Plants. II. English Trees and Shrubs. III. Exotic and Overlandish Drugs; so many as are commonly used in Physick. The whole illustrated with a Thousand curious and large Cuts, being the ICONS or Figures of each Plant, together with, 1. The various Names in Arabick, Greek, Latin, and English. 2. The Description. 3. The Kinds, or Species. 4. The principal Differences. 5. The Places of Growth. 6. The time of Flowering and Seeding. 7. The Temperature, Properties, and Appropriations. 8. The Specification. 9. The Preparations. 10. The Virtues and Uses. Chymically designed and medicinally applied to all the various Preparations. In Folio. By W. Salmon, Author of this Work. It is now in the Press, and will be expedited with what speed may be. To be sold by Thos. Bassett, at the George in Fleetstreet. It is a great Work, and proves tediouser than was expected, the Cuts prolonging the time, not being all finished, but it is hastened with the greatest industry imaginable.

SALMON's Family-Pills and Family-Pouder ; also his Elixir, those so famously known throughout England, for the Cure of most curable Diseases, as Scurvy, Drop-sie, Gout, Worms, &c.
made and prepared by the Author himself.

I. The Family Pills, and Family Pouder. Both these Medicines are fitted for the cure of the same Diseases; but the Pills work more gently, the Pouder more strongly, yet both very safely, and may be given to Old or Young, whether Man, Woman, or Child, being given in a fit Dose. The delight of having both Pills and Pouder, is this, That they who cannot swallow the Pills, may take the Pouder ; and they who cannot take the Pouder, may make use of the Pills, they being universal Purgers. These famous Family Pills and Family Pouder, are eminent for the cure, not only of the aforesaid Diseases, but also of Agues, Green-sickness, Catarrahs, Head-ach, Lethargy, Rheumy Eyes, Stinking Breath, want of Appetites, illness of Stomach, puffing at Stomach, Vomiting, Fluxes, Foulness of Stomach, Hard-drinking, Seasickness, Urine, &c. pt., Barrenness, Sciatica, Numbness, French-Pox, Gonorrhœa, Swellings, Lameness, Pain in any Part, Pus-hes, Wheals, Boches, Scabs, Itch, Ticks, Ring-worms, Morphew, Leprosy, Mange, salt Humors, all Breakings out, running-sores, old Ulcers, Fistulaes, Jaundice, King's-Evil, Worms, &c.

II. Our Elixir Vitæ. This our Universal Elixir, we invented for the sakes of such as could not take our Family Pills, nor Pouder, it is indeed a most admirable Medicine for the cure of the Scurvy, Drop-sie, Gout, Jaundice, Rheumatism, King's-Evil, and Worms : and indeed may be given in any of the Cases, in which the said Pills and Pouder may be given ; besides which, this Elixir cures Coughs, Colds, Asthma's, Shortness of Breath, Ptisicks, Stiches, Pleurisie, Spæen, Mother Firs, Costiveness, Collick, Griping of the Guts, bloody Flux, Stone, Gravel, Strangury, sharpnes and heat of Urine, Womens Diseases, Megrim, Convulsions, Melancholy, Frenzie, Madness, Vertigo, Apoplexy, Lethargy, Palse, Falling-sickness, Trembling, Weaknes, Dimness of Sight, Deafness, Consumption, weak Backs, Rickets, Green-sickness, Wind, Fevers, Calentures, Small-pox, Measles, Posion, and Surfeits.

III. If any Shopkeeper in any part of England, desires to Sell my Family Pills, or Family Pouder, or Elixir ; they are only to be had rightly prepared by my own hand, at my House at the blear Ball by the Dutch-side near Holbourn bridge, London, and no where else, with printed Directions for use. The Price of a Box of Elixir Pills is only 9 Pence ; of a Paper of Pouder 6 Pence, and of a Glas of Elixir 2 Shillings, sending to me at my House afore-said, they may be constantly had, and a proportional Gain shall be allowed on the sale of each Particular.

IV. LZenges for Coughs, Colds, Hoarsness, Wheezing, shortnes of breath, difficulty of Breathing, obstructions of the Lungs, spitting of blood, ulcers of the Lungs, Soreness, Asthma's stoppages of the Stomach and other distempers of the Breast, and parts adjacent, &c. Price 6 Pence a Counce.

Whom God Almighty by's protecting hand,
Brought through the Sea, directed to our Land.
Through Storms and Tempests, Neptune's raging force,
And briny Streams that never knew remorse.
His name, who did the threatening Boyl persuade,
And taught his men, how o'er its streams to Wade.

February, 1693.

Thus you, great Sir, the Crown and Laurel wear,
And with your story fill the Murmuring Air.
Victory attends in Triumph, Glory too,
What to your Virtues and your Valors due.

You unto mighty Empire sure was born,

VII. Fo:

March hath xxxi days.

Thus, Sir, you see your mighty God thro' all,
He that upholds you will not let you fall.

Who at the Boyn did save you, is the same,
The shot to you, with its Commission came,

Who sav'd you whilst against the tree you slept,
Delay'd the shooting, and the Bullet kept.

March, 1693.

You slept your fill, and from your station rite,
Commission's given, and the bullet flies.
Th' Egyptian Chariots halted, and their Whetls,
So heavy moving, made them use their heels.
This, tho' on Earth, from Heav'n it was a doom,
And it presag'd th' event that was to come.

Heav'n yet permits another fatal blow,
As if it saw, and lik't the Treason too.
Such secret ways the hand of God does take,
Lets the Links joyn, and then the Chain does break.
So here your God, who saw the Treasons spring,
Did seize the Traitor, and did save the King.

April, 1693.

Their Armies at the Ryna sink down and fall,
Their breaden Gods are deaf unto their call.
They shot, and mist; the tree in peices fell,
They curse their fate, and Damn their Gods to Hell.
Contrive and Plot, are taken in the snare,
And meet the Curse, they seem to fly and fear.

Is this the way your powerful God will lead?

Is this the Path your Royal feet must tread?

Must Treasons still be spawned in your way?

And Pitchy darknes meet you at noon day?

Tho' this may be, your God the same is still,
And tho' the Viper bites, it shall not kill.

May now my Muse a Prophet's stile assume,
Whilst with your Arms you fix the Tyrants doom?
Methinks I see the French to run for fear,
And Hectoring Monsieur smote with deep despair.

Your Royal Navy rampant rides at Sea,
And makes the French where e're they meet obey.

June, 1693.

He'll fight your Battels for you on the Land,
And make the raging Sea on heaps to stand.
Your Royal Navy he at Sea will bles,
And in another Battle give Success.

In dreadful storms of Thunder, Lightning, Smoak ;
The Barb'rous Foe shall neither stand nor look.

If yet in your own kingdoms Treasons spawn,
And secret Traps, to horrid Acts be drawn ;
If yet such Traytors draw their viler breath,
Design yet blacker Treasons and your death :
Your mighty God will their designs defeat,
And spight of all their plots, still make you great.

JANV, 1693.

Such things and greater will your God yet do,
And bring Hells deep designs to publick view.
Traytors at home, and Foes abroad he'll make,
The Victims of his Anger for your sake.
The blessings yet laid up for you in store,
Spoil Monsieurs plots, and Maintenon the Whore.

By Bribes and Treasons 'tis he makes his wars,
Such mean Ambition your great Soul abhors.

He takes at Land, and fights at Sea with Gold,
And tow'ring boas is, the conquest which was so

Lorrain his Victim was, and 'tis too true,
Nassaw he would by the same means subdue.

August, 1693.

Thus Monsieur Treason hatches on his bed,
Contrives base acts upon a crowned head.
With horror I such Vileness call to mind;
More when I think 'twas by a King design'd.
But 'tis the way those mighty persons take,
Thro their vile Souls hells central powers I see.

The nights black shades shall all your foes surround,
 And Gallick counsels fall into a swoond.
 With shades converse, to set their magick spell,
 Contrast by th' great, and joyn their force with hell.
 All this and more may be your fate to run,
 But their designs shall end before begun.

September, 1693.

From the French Tyrants plots your person saye,
Whilst he goes unlamented to his Grave.

A mighty Work your God will by you do,
Both Tyrannies o'er turn, and Tyrants too.

Their scatter'd Troops before your face shall fly,
Their feeble men for very grief shall die.

quor, and add thereto, Cinnamon water
1 drachm. Dose 3 drachm. ad 6 drachmas. It purges gently both upwards and downwards all ill humours it meets with, and is an excellent thing against Agues.

XXV. An Excellent Febrifuge.

Take Mercurius dulcis 3 ounces.
Mercurius Vita corrected 1 ounce, mix and make a pouder. The Mercurius Vita is thus corrected: Put it into a small glass Cuerlit in a gentle sand heat, leave it there till it begins to grow red; assise thereon rectified Spirit of Wine, and alprall it, which repeat three times with fresh Spirit.
This pouder if made with the Mercurius Vita not corrected, works both upwards and downwards;
but if you make it of that which is corrected, it works only downwards, the Mercurius dulcis is only as a corrective to the other.
Dose gr. 6. to Children in a roasted
Apple, augmenting the dose to gr.
20. according to age and strength.
yea to gr. 24. in such as are very strong. It cures Agues in all Ages and Sexes, given in the morning fasting the day before the fit.

XXVI. Another febrifuge, or A- gue frighzer.

Take the Peruvian Bark and make it into fine Powder. Dose a half a drachm, ad 1 drachm and half, or 2 drachmas, to be given after the fit is off; the body

All base designs your nobler Soul does Scorn :

To Empire and to Glory you were Born.

And whilst you fight, you nobler ends pursue,
You share the danger and the honour too.

Heav'n crowns your Actions as you do intend,
And for your Justice, does become your friend.

This Glory is entail'd upon your name,
Your greatness fixt upon the Wings of fame.
Your life is honour, and your Arms a dread,
Your conduct wonder, where your Lyons tread.

Deserving men with due rewards you meet,
But vilest Traytors punish with regret.

November, 1693.

There's nothing makes you so ador'dly great,
But love of Justice, and despising state.
Nothings of value in your just esteem,
But the wretched Nations which you did redeem.
'Tis this gives Empire while the People stand;
And tribute pay unto your Sovereign hand.

December, 1623.

Th' European Nations fears, may you repell;
 Your pow'rful charms dissolve the Gallick spell.
 May you live long and reign in happy peace,
 May your dear Consort all your joys increase.
 May all the good you both can wish, succeed,
 And who obstructs it, be to shame decreed.

An ADVERTISEMENT.

Whereas one John Hollier Publishes and pretends to Sell Salmon's Family Pills under that Name, Effigies and Seal, in many Places of this Kingdom for 12 Pence a BOX: This is to give Notice to all Persons whatsoever; That he unmercifully and basely assumes my Name, Effigies and Seal, doing it without my Privilege, Allowance, Order or Consent (to my great Prejudice and Damage;) And that I who am the Author of the said Family Pills, do both now, and shall for time to come, sell the said Family Pills only for 9 Pence a BOX, I have also made several Alterations and Improvements of the Medicine for the advantage thereof, which Hollier knows nothing, neither as to the Names, Numbers or Nature of the things added or altered; the Preparation, Parts or Proportion of any thing contained therein. By reason of which Alterations, they neither Vomit nor make Sick; or grieve the Bowels in the least; but work more nimbly and pleasantly than formerly; and without any the least danger, being fitted against the most Stubborn and rebellious Diseases, which no other Remedy can cure or help. So that I modestly affirm, That one BOX of these Pills, thus improved and advanced in Virtue and Goodness; are worth five BOXES (for all that I know Ten) of those which Hollier or any else make and sell without my Order or Consent. They are now to be had thus rightly prepared at my House, at the Blew Ball by the Ditch-side near Holborn-bridge, London. Where all such as desire to have or sell them, or my Family Pouder or Elixir, (of which Hollier knows nothing at all) may have them (the Pills at 9 d. a BOX, the Pouder at 6 d. a Paper, and the Elixir at 2 i. the Glass) and with the Allowance for selling: of which all such as are concerned in their Sale, am hereby desired to take notice.

The World is also desired to remember, That the Advertisement which Hollier, or some of his Accomplices, has put at the end of one of my late published Books, entitled, Select Physical and Chyrurgical Observations, Printed for Thomas Paffenger, on London-Bridge, (whilst I was absent in the West Indies) is a base, unworthy and malicious Libel, designedly done to wrong and abuse the Author, and to my very great prejudice; for that I left large Quantities of all sorts of my Medicines with my Wife, to be sold in my absence: nor did I ever give Hollier, or any else Leave, Order or Directions to do the same, much less to publish that malicious Advertisement, which now upon my return to England, I here signifie and declare to the whole World.

I should have been so free as to have declared to the World the present Composition of my Family Pills, as also of my Family Pouder, and my Elixir, had I not n<sup>t</sup> w<sup>t</sup>ish such hard measure, and such an unjust and unworthy Treatment from the said Hollier as aforesaid, and therefore humbly beg Excuse of the Publick for this concealment for a Season, till the Villany of such ill Persons shall cease, nor doubting, but as there is a time for all things, so a time may come for this their Publication.

LONDON Almanack,
For the Year 1693.

By W. Salmon Professor of Physick.

I. Of the Eclipses this Year, 1693.

1. There will be four Eclipses this Year of the Luminaries; two of the Sun, and as many of the Moon; of which the two first, viz. the first of the Sun and first of the Moon, will be Visible to us, and almost total defects: the other Invisible, each Eclipsed Luminary being at the time of the Deliquium under the Earth.

2. The first Eclipse will be a Great One of the Moon, the middle of which will be on January the 12th. about 3 h. 51. m. in the Morning. It happens in ♐ 4°. It will be Visible and Total, yea almost a Central Eclipse, and worthy of Observation. It is the face of Martial Glory; but being beheld by ☽ with an Opposition, it shews much Treachery, Treason, and working in the Dark: Those Persons must receive their condign Punishment, for ☽ is afflicted by the Sun.

3. The second Eclipse will be a great one of the Sun, on June 23d. the middle of which will be near 20 Minutes Afternoon: It hapens in ♈ 12°. in the beginning of the 3d. Face of that Sign. It will be visible to us, and almost as great as was that Eclipse on the 29. March 1652.

4. The third Eclipse will be a great one of the Moon, on July 7th. about 10 a Clock in the Morning. It will be celebrated in ♉ 25°. The beginning of the last face of the same Sign. It is the face of Mistrust, Wars, Contentions, Strife and Jealousie, and the frowns of Fortune. Hore Matth. lib. 1. cap. 5. Sect. 24. But the Moon being at that time Sub terra, it will be wholly invisible to us in England.

5. The fourth and last Eclipse, will be of the Sun, on December 16th. near 12 at Night: It will happen in ♑ 6°. the second face of the Goat. It perturbs the Affairs of States and Kingdoms, introducing Barbarism, and the Destruction struction of Learning, Arts and Sciences. It will be a great defect, but the Deliquium will not be visible to us, but to our Antipodes.

The London Almanack, 1693.

6. A remarkable Opposition of Saturn and Jupiter, and twice reiterated: It was first celebrated the 12th. of June 1692. from ♄ and ♐ 5°. 47'. repeated again in the same Year, on December 3. from ♄ and ♐ 14°. 12'. and now this Year 1693. again reiterated by the Retrogradation of Saturn on 22d. April from the same Signs, viz. ♄ and ♐ 21°. 15'. all which redouble the Force and Effects of the first Opposition, and signifie the overturning or Ruine of some Great Tyrant, or Tyrannous Government in Europe: And what if I should say that both Saturn and Jupiter signifie the Confederate Forces, acting to the Destruction of their Enemies, by opposite Means or Designs. Saturn signifies the natural Slowness but Firmness of the Confederate Powers; Jupiter the Honesty and Justice of their Cause: The one afflicts the Enemy by his presence, the other by his Opposition.

25. No. 48. By the Sea-Crabs are signified Holland, or the United Provinces, and Scotland; By the Dragon is meant the French Tyrant; and his looking upwards his great distress.

26. No. 49. 51. The total Reduction of England, Scotland and Ireland, with the Dominions thereunto belonging, under the Dominion and Government of our happy and glorious King and Queen, William and Mary; and at last the total Conquest of France by the Arms of their said Majesties, as the Tops of the Flower de luce turned downwards may probably signify.

27. No. 50. The States of Holland or the United Provinces: The Assembly of Men in a Senate House, the Parliament of England.

28. No. 51. The Sovereign power of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, invested in their Majesties William and Mary, by the Power of whose Arms, peace succeeds all over Europe, as the Lambs playing signify. 52<sup>o</sup>. The final Power and Dominion of the King and Queen of England, by the Providence of God Almighty; and the total Overthrow of Popery in England.

29. No. 53. A farther Confirmation, of their Majesties Power and Authority over the Kingdoms of England, Scotland and Ireland (which was done by the Recognition Act) after which is the Conquest of France, or the Ruine of its Polity, signified by Virgo Weeping, for France is under Virgo.

30. N<sup>o</sup>. 54. signifies the Destruction of the French Navy or a great part thereof at Sea; which was done the last Year in May, by their Majesties royal Navy, under the Command of their Valiant and Daring Admiral Russel: And this we hinted at, in the very Month of May; in our last Years Almanack, in these Words,

The Gallick-Nation like the Men of Ai,
Shall bow, and fall, and signalize the Day.

31. No. 55. signifies another Fight at Sea with the French, yet to come; wherein their Navy shall be totally destroyed.

The Londen Almanack, 1693.

32. No. 56. The King and Queen's-Arms, overcoming the Power of the French Tyrant. No. 57. New Opposition made by the French Tyrant, but the Army of the Cross (which is the Army of England, the Cross being the Ancient Arms of our Country) assisted by Angels, or the Divine Providence of God.

33. No. 58. Signifies Seven Years of Bloody War, of which near four are now past.

34. No. 59. The Union of the British and Dutch People in their Councils and Arms, by the happy ascending of King William III. to the Crown of England.

35. No. 60. A farther Contest between the English and French: where the Red Cross and Lion Passant, alway signifie England, as being the Arms of England: the Red Dragon and Flower de luce, the French King and French Nation.

36. No. 61. The fall of the French King, and French Power; the Great King of England and his Army being Victorious. No. 64. The Absolute Conquest of France, and overturning of its Polity, signified by Three dead Dragons; the one of which signifies the Tyrant himself: The second his Tyannick Power: The third the Power and Dominion of their Clergy, or the Romish Church.

37. No. 62. An Army marching and carrying on its Ensigns Pax, without any to oppose it, signifies an Universal Peace throughout all Europe; introduc'd and brought to pass by the only Means and Power of our Glorious Monarch, whom God grant long to reign.

That none may think that these Hieroglyphicks are made to answer to the Revolutions of Times, after the Events are come to pass, be pleased to take notice, that I communicated several Copies of them to several Gentlemen, more than Twenty Years since; and some of them to whom I either shew them, or communicated them, are Men publickly known in the World, amongst which Number are, Mr. Henry Coley, who writes Almanacks Annually: Dr. W. Williams of Wapping, an Ancient Physician of near Forty Years Practice: The honoured Captain Whorwood of Denton in the County of Kent, one of his Majestys Justices of the Peace; besides several other eminent Persons, who can with all Truth testify the Reality of their Antiquity, as it is by me affirmed; and it was by Mr. Coley's means that

that they saw the Light; for lying by me, they were wholly out of my Mind; but the said Mr. Coley calling them to his Remembrance made a Journey to my Houle, where reminding me of the same, he did by many Arguments induce me to publish them; which I at first refused, as fearing People might think they were wrote after the Effects of things were come to pass; but he overcame and prevailed with me, by this Argument; That not only himself, but many others to whom I had shewn them above Twenty Years since could attest the contrary, and bear Witness to the Truth of the same.

III. A Prophecy of our Present King William III.

1. IT is drawn out of Bandensis his M. S. Exercitat. 67. and 69. where he affirms, That God shall promote the Happiness of Jerusalem, Peace shall be within her Walls and Plenteousness within her Palaces; and that many Mutations shall happen to Austria, Silesia, Hungaria, Holland, France and Portugal, wherein they must give place to the Lion of the North, whose Scepter shall crush their Power to nothing, and his Sword lay their Forces Prostrate at his Feet.

2. At that Time all Europe shall sing this following Song.

*Heu mala progenies fatis servata nefandis,
Genque nefandarum dominatrix altrixque ferarum.
Quid fueras, quid fisque vide: tua prima propago
Bella gerit, Sobolemque petet lues atra secundam.
At Leo terribilis Borealis editus oris
Flammiferam ex Orco & Pelagi plangentibus undis
Educens Aciem, pecudes, Urbesque Virosque
Sternet, & antiquis solem Lunamque movebit
Sedibus; ille etiam Patrio jure infima summa Reddet, & Occasum sub leges mitter inermem.*

3. Which Prophecy may be thus Englished.

*Unhappy Race, reserv'd to dismal Fate,
Diminish'd Glory, and divided State.
See what thouwert and art; thy first Degree
Shall into fatal Wars involved be
The Plague subdues thy latter Sons, unwise
One like an unregarded Victim dies.*

The London Almanack, 1693.

Then from the North a Lion shall appear
Whose Ensigns Terror shall sustain and fear.
He from the Deep, the Sea, and Waves shall bring
His armed Men, who shall his Triumphs sing.
Peoples and Nations be shall subject make,
Their Substance and their Cattel he shall take.
The Sun and Moon, his powerful Arms shall prove,
And from their ancient Seats shall them remove.
To's Country he shall do the thing that's just,
And shall exalt the Earthly from the Dust.
Th' European Nations he shall keep in Awe,
And to the Western People give a Law.

4. The Explanation. By Leo terribilis, or the Lion of the North, the Prince of Orange, now the Great and Glorious King of England, who bears a Lion Rampant, as the Signal of his People, witness his Coin; beside which, if I have his true Genesis, he has Leo ascending at his Nativity. By Ex Orco & Pelagi plangentibus undis, or Hell and raging waves of the Sea, is meant the Deep and Stormy Sea, from whence the Prince and his Men, were saved as by a Miracle, and redeemed even from the very Jaws of Hell or the Grave, for by Storm and the violent raging of the Sea, they, upon their first setting out, were driven back again, and in danger of being all lost, and had doubtless perished had not the wonderful Providence of God saved them. By Pecudes, Urbesque, virosque sternet, or his over-running Cities, Men and Cattel, is meant his great Success in prevailing with the People of England, Scotland, and Ireland, upon his descent. By solem, Lunamque Movebit, or his removing the Sun and Moon, is meant the Abdication of King James II. and his Religion, which did only shine as the Moon in England, both which went off the Stage upon the Ascent of the Prince of Orange. By Patrio jure infima summa reddet, or making the least highest, is meant, the Restoration of our Laws, Liberties, Privileges and Religion, which then lay a bleeding, and as in the lowest State or the Dust. By Occasum sub leges mittit inermem, or he shall give Laws to the disarmed Western people, is meant, his Conquest of Ireland, the Protestant Part of which, was disarmed by King James II. and the Popish Party, after his Reduction of it, he gives

The London Almanack, 1693.

Laws to it, and Rules it. With how much Truth this Prophecy, (wrote for ought that I know above 100 Years since) is fulfilled, the foregoing Explication may signifie; however I leave it to the Sense and Reason of every Reader to judge for himself.

IV. Some Medicinal Receipts of good vulgar Use.

1. A Syrup against the Scurvy.

Take Juice of Scurvy-grass and Brook-lime, Clarified: Syrup of Steel, pure refined Sugar, Juice of Oranges of each two Pounds; mix and make a Syrup.

It is a most excellent thing to cure the Scurvy, and an evil Habit of Body, being taken daily every Morning and Evening, from one Spoonfull to Two; the patient in the mean Season abstaining from salt Meats, sweet Meats, and Crude or unripe Fruit, and withall using moderate Exercise.

2. A good remedy against the Stone and Strangury.

Take Juice of Parsley 36, Juice of Saxifrage, or Pellitory 34; Juice of Onions 3 1/2, powder of Winter Cherries a Scruple, mix for a Dose.

It is excellent to break the Stone as well in the Reins as Bladder, if made up of gravelly Concretions, and is easy to be broken; and it operates without Danger and Pain, I have made a Patient piss presently with this Remedy, which lay in great Torture, and had not made a Drop of Water in Ten or Twelve Days. Every Six Hours repeat the Dose, till the Sick is cured, and if you please mix it with a little white Wine.

3. A water to ease the Gout.

Take dry Ox dung, Frog-spawn, ana. mix them together, put them into a Glass Alembick and distill in Balneo Maria, with a gentle Heat to Dryness, and keep the Water for Use.

When you use this Water dissolve therein, in every four Ounces of the Water, Pot-ashes half an Ounce; Witre half a Dram. It is commended to affwage the Pains of hot Gouts, linen Clothes being dipt therein, and applyed to the part affected very hot; but the Morbifick Cause ought first to be carried off by purging or vomiting, or both.

The London Almanack, 1693.

4. A Powder for a Gonorrhœa in Men, or the Whites in Women.

Take Antimonium Diaphoreticum, Rosin of Venice Turpentine, ana 3j. Rock Alum, Catechu, Jesuites bark, ana 3ss. all being in fine powder, mix them.

This is to be taken Universals being premised, or after due purging; the Dose is half a dram at a time Morning and Evening, in half a pint of Milk made thick with l-sing-glass dissolved therein, and a little sweetned with treble refined Sugar. This Medicine stops Fluxes also, and the overflowing of the Terms in Women.

5. An admirable Vulnerary Balsam.

Take Oil of Turpentine 2 ounces, Oil of Mace or Nutmegs by Expression, one ounce, Bees-wax half an ounce, green Vitriol, pure Verdigrease, ana. gr. 7, melt and mix them together, put them into a Glass Vial close stopp'd, and digest it in a gentle sand heat, or in the Sun for some days, and keep the Balsam for Use.

This Balsam is of wonderful Virtue for the Cure of all Sorts of Curable Wounds, some few drops being put thereinto; then apply to it a little Bolster, dipt in the Balsam heated luke-warm.

6. An Electuary, purging watery humours.

Take Melaginous Extract of Juniper Berries, Pulp of Tamarinds thickned to a due Consistence, ana, 4 ounces, powder of choice Falap an ounce and half; powder of choice Scammony 1 ounce, choice Rheeubarb in powder 1 ounce, biting Cinnamon, sweet Fennel-seeds, ana 2 drams, double refined Sugar 10 ounces, mix and make an Electuary.

It is good against Dropsies and such as are Cachetical and Hydroical, prevails against the Scurvy, Gout, and Stone, and all Diseases proceeding from Tartarous or Serious Humours, as the King's Evil, Obstructions of the Lungs, &c. Dose from 2 Drams to half an ounce, and sometimes to 6 Drams in the Morning fasting.

7. An excellent Collyrium, or Eye-water.

Take Tutia finely poudred 2 ounces, white Virriss, Saccharum Saturni, of each 2 Drams: Fennel and damask Rose-water, of each a pint and half, Spirit of Wine half a pint, mix them, digest in a gentle heat for 7 days, and then keep in a Bottle close stopp'd for Use.

It stops any Rheum though never so violent, strengthens the the sight, removes Clouds, Pearls, Films, or other things which obfuscate the sight, and is an excellent thing against Blood-shot Eyes, and a Fistula Lachrymalis; wash the Eyes therewith 4, 5, or 6 times a day.

8. A soluble Emetic Tartar.

Take Crocus Metallorum mixed with its Salts in fine powder, Cream of Tartar in fine powder, of each 2 ounces, Spring or Fountain Water 3 pound, digest 24 hours in a very gentle Heat; afterward increasing the fire, let them boil gently, filter the Liquor whilst hot, and evaporate, till a thin film cover it; then set it in a cool place to Crystallize.

The parts of this Cream of Tartar, being disunited by the Mixture of the fix'd Salt remaining in the Crocus, and being impregnated with the Virtues of the Crocus, is easily dissolvable in cold Water, and fitted to purge upwards and downwards. Dose a gr. 2 ad 6 in Broth, Posset-Drink, Wine, Ale, Mead, or other Liquors.

9. An Hysterick Mixture.

Take Oil of amber gut. 30. Tinctures of Saffron and Camomile, of each three ounces, treble refined Sugar 6 ounces; Rose-water 12 ounces, mix and digest together according to Art.

It is an excellent Mixture against Vapors, Fits of the Mother, and other Distempers of the Womb, as also against the Epileplie, and most Diseases of the Head, Brain, and Nerves. Dose from a Spoonfull to two Spoonfulls, or more.

10. A Plaster to strengthen the Womb.

Take Minium in fine powder 12 ounces, Ceruse 6 ounces, Soap ten ounces, Oil Olive 2 pounds, Rose-water 9 ounces, boil them according to Art into an Emplaster.

This Plaster being spread upon a round piece of Leather, and applyed to the Region of the Womb, is highly commended to strengthen the Ligaments thereof: And some have commended it against Pain and Weakness of the Back. This I know by good Experience; that it is an excellent thing against the Gout, and not only eases the Pain, but cures the Disease when many other things fail.

11. A Cosmetick of Ox Galls Compound.

Take Ox Galls digested 24 hours in B. M. four pound, Rock Alum, Sandiver, ana. 1 ounce, mix and digest them in a gentle B. M. for 14 or 20 days shaking them every day, then then filter, to the filtered Liquor add Porcellane, or seed pearls, powdered fine and dissolved in Spirit of Vinegar, Borax, Sperma Ceti, Sugar-Candy, An a 1 ounce, Camphir, Mercurius dulcis in fine powder, of each half an ounce, mix and digest again in E. M. for 10 days, shaking the Glass once a day, then filter and keep the Liquor for Use.

The London Almanack, 1693.

It clears the Face and Skin from Scurf, Morphew, Sunburnings, and other Defects thereof, if wash'd therewith Morning and Evening; and in the Morning washing afterwards with damask-Rose-water. You may be in the Sun all day long, the Face being anointed with it, to prevent Sun-burning, and then at Night washing it off, to bath it a fresh with the same.

12. A Liquor against Fits of the Mother.

Take Elk's hoof, Man's skull in powder, of each half an ounce, filings of Ox horns 2 drams, Saffron, Camphir, ana 1 dram, mix and digest cold in Aqua Vitæ or Spirit of Wine one pound, for 15 days, then decant the clear Tincture for Use.

It is a Specifick to suppress all Vapours, which rise from the Womb, as also Fits of the Mother, and to cure other Distempers of those parts. It is an excellent thing against all cold and moist Distempers of Head, Brain and Nerves, prevails against the falling Sickness, Apoplexy, Palsie, Trembling and Numbness of any Part, as also Weakness and Feebleness of the Nerves. Dose from half a spoonfull to one spoonfull in the Morning fasting in a Glass of Sack: It may also be snuff'd up into the Nostrils, bath'd upon the Temples, and taken in drops from 20 to 30 at a time, in all the Patient drinks all the day long.

13. A powder stopping Blood.

Take fine Bole, Terra sigillata, Catechu, of each 2 ounces; Pomegranate flowers and Peels, red Roses, Dragons blood, Olibanum, Mastick, all in fine powder, of each one ounce, mix and make a powder.

It may be given in Wine, or some specifick Decoction à 3ff. ad 3l. against the Bloody-flux, spitting of Blood, pissing of Blood, or any other Losses of Blood, and in Weaknesses of the Stomach and Bowels. Outwardly it may be applyed, being first incorporated with Whites of Eggs, Vinegar, or some Styptick Water, like a Cataplasm to stop Defluxions and loss of Blood, and to strengthen the Parts, and close the Orifices of Wounds.

The London Almanack, 1693.

14. A Compound salt against an ill Habit of Body.

Take Salt extracted out of the Caput Mort. of  $\text{Æ. } \frac{1}{3}$ , Sal prunellæ  $\frac{1}{2}$ , Vitriol of Mars  $\frac{1}{2}$ , powder them together, put them into a glass Cucurbit, and in a sand heat, augment the fire gradually, till the matter looks red, flows like water, and at last turns to a red hard Stone, which keep for Use.

This Salt is of extraordinary Use in Cachexies, Leuco-phlegmaties, scorbutick Distempers, and the Green Sickness, to purge the Mass of Blood, create an Appetite, open the Obstructions of the Viscera, and Passages of the Urine, divert Fluxes of Rheum, and carry off rebellious and malign Humours by Stool, Urine, and sweat, or by insensible Transpiration. This is certain, it makes a strange Alteration in the Blood for the better: it may be powdred and given in some proper Liquor, Beer, Ale, or Wine, from 10 to 20 grains every morning fasting, and if need require it, last at night going to Bed.

V. Monthly Observations on the Year 1693.

F A N V A R Y.

Long wish'd for peace is not yet to be found:
No such ripe fruit grows on European Ground.
Such seeds of Discord Tyrants ever sow,
No Peace can be expected where they grow,
And tho' some strive to heal the festring sore,
The Wound grows deeper, and the Danger more.
All Remedies in vain are yet apply'd;
No hope of Life, but in divide, divide.
The sphacelated Part must be cut off;
And the same Cure is for the Gallick Toph.
The French Disease so desperate now is grown,
None but a State Chyrurg can knock it down.

F E B R U A R Y.

In what deep Slumber were the nations set,
And how fell they into the Gallick net?
What Folly made them truckle to the Pride?
Of the French Gull; or in his Faith confide?
What Answer makes the Tyrant? 'twas their Fate!
which made them Vassals to my Pride and Hate.
By the same Fate, the Tyrant's end draws near,
Who others trap'd, is fallen into the Snare.
A mighty Force preparing is, to make
The sleeping, sleeping, sleeping World awake.

March

The London Almanack, 1693.

M A R C H.

The Conqu'ring Sword proceeds, the Voice of War
Sounds loud, and makes the Gallick Monster fear.
His Arm no longer shall that Scepter wield,
Nor shall Deceit his crafty person Shield.
His sudden Fall the Pow'rs above decree :
His sudden Fall the Kings o'th Earth shall see.
The Stars above each in their Courses fight,
And Heav'n it self will upon Earth do right.
All the oppressed Princes join as one ;
To set more rightfull Heirs upon the Throne.
Each seeks his Own, and each his Own shall have,
Nor shall they to the Monster grant a Grave.

A P R I L.

Great Armies now begin for to appear,
And mighty Actions seem to face the Year.
The Voice of Thunder's heard ; the Cannon sounds ;
And nothing's seen in France but Blood and Wounds.
His Towns submit, his stronger places yield,
And Monsieur's hectoring Forces quit the field.
Or otherwise, he runs away for fear,
For all his Actions border on Despair.
Nothing succeed against his prosperous Foes ;
And though he flies from Danger meets with Blows.
Such Tyrants only draw a troubl'd Breath,
And dying have an unlamented Death.

M A Y.

Confed'rates and brisk English play their part
And smite the Monster to the very heart.
Now Lewis only does with Lewis joins,
The Dragons wounded and his life declines.
Such Tyrants have all Mankind for their Foes :
He's Friend to none, nor any Friendship knows.
His Sword's his trust, and Blood is his desir'd,
Revenge his Way, and Cruelty his Line.
But near this Time, a fatal Blow is struck,
The evil Omen of his future Luck.
The French in Battle fall, some Town is won,
And Neptune storm'd, just as the Farce begun.

J U N E.

Be bold, ye Sons of Mars, the Field is yours,
The baser French must truckle to your Powers.

The London Almanack, 1693.

The God that's on your side upholds your Right,
And will for you in day of Battle fight.
The Monster's thirst is only after Blood,
And he shall drink his fill, whole Streams, a Flood.
Such is the Justice Heav'n designs to pay,
Which all his Saints one Moment can't delay.
And when you see his Armies fall or flee,
The Time is near wherein these Things shall be.
The Sea is troubl'd and the Cannons roar;
There's dreadful Tydings from the Gallick Shore.

F V L Y.

See how their Armies run, behold the Chase:
See how their Glories joined with Disgrace.
Is this the Monster made the World to fear;
Who only did in dreadful shapes appear?
Is he turn'd Ghost in order to affright
His spoiled People, and disturb their night?
All this is true, too true to make a Jeft;
No room is left for doubt, where Ghofts attest.

A U G U S T.

Plotters in secret work; no search is made:
By just Permission each Man has his Trade.
But Charity should now at Home begin:
To criminate our selves would be a fin.
Much less to search for Faults, and such accuse,
Who act the Crimes, our selves in private Use.
This with a Vengeance would a Fault become:
And be a heap of Treasons in a Summ.
Tho' King and Country such as these betray;
With Silence they're discharg'd, while others pay.
But all accounts upon the Score are put;
And some deserving Dog shall suffer for't.

Some great one falls; th' unerring hand of Death
By Justice puts a Period to his Breath.
No Force of Fate shall justle off the Blow:
The whole Transaction was decreed so.
Tho' Traytors now act for the Tyrant's Sake;
Who shares his Crimes shall in his Fall partake.
Such is the Work, Heav'n does it self design;
And who so bold to lay a Countermine?
Should any Wretch attempt it by Compact,
He'll be ensnar'd, and perish in the Act.

There

The London Almanack, 1693.

There is no Force on Earth, can frustrate
God's firm Decrees, in the Conduct of Fate.

O C T O B E R.

Before the Circuit of the Year is run,
You'll see in France a mighty Work be done.
Each Prince in Hopes to have his own restor'd,
And him o'ercome, whom Slaves so much ador'd.
The Land reduc'd in Part, and Canton'd out;
And Hector's Forces put unto the Rout.
But th' Race is not obtain'd at the first Start;
The Work'tis true, will be but yet in Part.
The Tyrant yet, they but in part defeat;
Some time succeeding must the Work compleat.
But 't shall be done, and War shall disappear;
Peace shall return in state, and none shall fear.

N O V E M B E R.

Who shall perform these things? who is the Man?
Who dares attempt? what mighty Monarch can?
William the Great, is he that dares, and will;
Our mighty King, the barbarous Foe shall quell.
There's none shall stand before his conqu'ring Sword;
None dare oppose if that he speak the Word.
Such Justice in his gen'rous Soul does dwell;
The Wretches shall adore him, that rebell.
In all succeeding Times his Name shall stand,
Th' eternal Mark of Glory to our Land.
The Life, by which the Nations round are blest,
Whilst Tyrants Names in deep Oblivion rest.

D E C E M B E R.

The Treble Oppofition of the Two,
Shews what the Juster Nemesis will do.
Tho' Years of Wonders we have paſſed o'er,
Yet ſtill a Sex of Troubles are at Door.
Strife cannot ceafe, while that its Cause has place
For Tyrannies, the Lines of Peace deface.
A troubled Sky I ſee; a cloudy Air,
And ſtill the Stars for greater things prepare.
A potent Monarch's Downfall they foretell;
Nor ſhall the strength of France diſſolve the Spell.
But Spite of all the French Designs and Pride,
Our mighty Monarch ſhall their Force deride.
